

Clarence Ross is a native Houstonian and graduated from North Shore Senior High School in May 2004. After High School, Clarence began to pursue his dream of being a Biblical scholar by attending Southwestern Christian College. In May 2008 Clarence received his bachelor's degree from Southwestern. He continued his desire to educate by entering into public education where he has been a certified educator for 10 years. Along this journey Clarence entered Houston Baptist University and studied theology under world renowned scholars. In May of 2018 Clarence graduated from Houston Baptist University with a Masters degree of Theological Studies. Currently he serves under John Tillman Jr. as the Education Director of the Garden Oaks church of Christ in Houston Texas. His desire is to expose as many people as he can to the pure word of God and allow the word to create the change that God desires.
